Dear Sister Rosalia

Received both your letter and can't thank you enough for telling me about poor Sister Laid trouble.
She wrote on the 17th just that he had passed away, and then nothing more for so long. Yes I guess he was the pride and joy of her life. But in her letter (later) she told me the Lord knew best, and I am so thankful that she can take that attitude. You know everything considered

Po is a grand Gal. When I think of what she has gone thru, I'm afraid after she leaves this life I'll never see her again.
Oh! I do think she is good.
I'm sitting in our new house, writing, as you know, we live on the farm, but are building
a big house in town it's going to be lovely, but I feel like I can hardly wait for it to be finished.
Was so thrilled to hear about your Grand-sons
You always wanted them as I remember it. Now you have them.

and they are just as Dear being grand children, I can't see but what I love mine as much, and I enjoy them more than I did my own. Give my love to Minnie & Kes. Do swell Minnie, and all yours, were so lovely & nice to me. Tell me what you name the babies:

Tenney & Minifred are at home now, seems good to have them, but Ten ney is so restless wants to go again, Minifred will soon be leaving for the Dude Ranch
in the fall. Love to each summer. Prue Coleman's wife is the cook at the Ranch, and she (Wynifred loves Mrs. Coleman, I say she is so nice to work with and so good to her we learned to love her & family too. She is really nice. Well, I guess that is about all. Afton & we are in Fort Grant, teaching at the reform school.

Was so glad to hear of Elber's wedding.
Much love to you &
family - Lurlene
